Playing/Using the Games: Speed Gesture

This document will go over how a student plays Speed Gesture

Speed Gesture is a game for students to practice accessibility gestures. When the game starts the student will be asked to complete a gesture. They must complete the gestures as they are announced. The faster the student completes the gestures, the more points they will get.